

ANNOUNCING WINTER 2017-18

MATH SAT WORKSHOP

AUDIENCE: This workshop is suitable for students in grade 9-11, well as for 8th-graders who plan to take the SAT as a qualifying test for Johns Hopkins University Talented Youth Program (JHU CTY).

DATES: December 2, 9, 16; January 6, 13, 20, 27, February 3, 10, March 3.

TIME: Saturdays, 3 – 6 PM

FEES: RSM students: $200 for 10 3-hour classes
Non-RSM students $660 for 10 3-hour classes

INSTRUCTOR: Dr. Dmitry Vedensky

GENERAL INFO: The workshop will concentrate on practicing test skills on real and mock SAT tests. Due to its short duration, this workshop is not intended as a comprehensive review of all SAT topics. Rather it will concentrate on analyzing the results, analyzing typical mistakes, working on test taking strategies, and reviewing the material as needed based on the test results.

TO REGISTER: Current RSM-MetroWest students please stop at the office or email info@metrowestschool.com.

Students not currently registered at RSM-MetroWest please fill out the enrollment application and indicate "SAT Workshop" in the Comments field of the application
